

STRONGER TOGETHER

A Canadian Position on Multidisciplinary Care for Patients Post-hip Fracture

Article of the month by Bone Health and Osteoporosis Foundation

Watch OnDemand

CLICK HERE OR SCAN
THE QR CODE TO VIEW

Watch Here! www.mdlearn.com/webcasts

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Understand the significance of osteoporosis and its relation to fracture risk and post-fracture outcomes
- Review best practices for multidisciplinary management of hip fractures, for both in-hospital and post-operative settings
- Discuss pharmacological management of osteoporosis post-fracture

Expert Speakers

ALIYA KHAN

MD, FRCPC, FACP, FACE, FASBMR

Clinical Professor of Medicine, Divisions of Endocrinology & Metabolism and Geriatrics, McMaster University
Current CSEM Council Director,
Co-chair Osteoporosis Canada Knowledge Translation Committee

WASIM MANSOOR

MD, MSc, FRCPC

General Internal Medicine,
System Leadership & Innovation (IHPME),
Trillium Health Partners
Clinical Lecturer, University of Toronto

EMIL SCHEMITSCH

MD, FRCSC

Chair/Chief of the Department of Surgery,
Schulich School of Medicine
& Dentistry, Western University,
London Health Sciences Centre, and
St. Joseph's Health Care London

Hosted by

The development of this webinar is based on the post hip fracture Canadian position paper by Khan et al, overseen by the development faculty, and supported by AMGEN.

